3. City transportation

Copenhagen Airport is situated only eight kilometers outside of Copenhagen city centre. From the airport, you have the option to travel to the city centre by bus, train, Metro or taxi.

By Metro to and from the airport

The easiest way to get to and from the airport is by Metro. The Metro runs around the clock. The Metro operates at 4-6 minutes intervals during the day and evening hours and at 15-20 minutes intervals during the night. The travel time from the airport towards the city centre is about 12 minutes.

You can read more here: <https://www.cph.dk/en/parking-transport/bus-train-metro/metro/>

By bus to and from the airport

There are several bus routes to and from the centre of Copenhagen. There are also free terminal busses, which run frequently between terminals in Copenhagen Airport.

You can read more here: <https://www.cph.dk/en/parking-transport/bus-train-metro/bus/>

By train to and from the airport

Trains from the airport towards the city centre depart every ten minutes, and the journey is about 20 minutes long.

You can read more here: <https://www.cph.dk/en/parking-transport/bus-train-metro/train/>

Tickets Tickets for the bus, train and Metro are available at the DSB ticket sales counter in Terminal 3. Please note that the ticket machines do not accept notes, only coins and cards such as the Dankort, VISA, etc.

A ride with either bus, train or Metro towards the city centre equals three zones and costs DKK 36.

You can find more travel information and connections for trains and buses on the website: www.rejseplanen.dk, which is available in Danish, English and German.

By taxi to and from the airport

There are taxi drop-off zones just outside Terminal 3. It will cost approx. DKK 250 and 350 (between 33 and 47 EUR) to Copenhagen city centre.

You can read more here: <https://www.cph.dk/en/parking-transport/taxi/>
