

Articulation between the abundance estimates and estimating a trend

*DSM can be used to predict abundance for environmental covariates in years for which no survey took place. Hence a larger sample size and more statistical power (assuming the DSM is correct)

M4 approach

