Arriving in Helsinki, Finland

Helsinki is serviced by the Helsinki-Vantaa Airport (19 km north of Helsinki city centre).

To reach the city centre from the airport:

Finnair City Bus operates between the airport and city centre every 20 minutes and takes around 30 minutes. A single ticket costs 6.20€ when purchased online in advance or 6.30€ from the driver (Euros and Visa/MasterCard accepted). The last stop of the bus is at Elielinaukio next to the Helsinki Central Railway Station, from where you can easily walk in five-ten minutes to the venue and GLO Hotel Kluuvi.

Trains P and I between Helsinki-Vantaa Airport and the Helsinki city centre take about 30 minutes. Schedules, ticket prices and routes are available at the Helsinki Regional Transport \(HSL\) website. At the airport you can buy a train ticket at the following locations:

- HSL ticket machines (by the entrance of the train station; at the airport at baggage claim 2B)
- Alepa Grocery Store (T2 Arrivals Hall 2B)
- WH Smith (T1 Departure Hall)
- WH Smith (T2 Departure Hall)
- R-kioski (T2 Arrivals Hall 2A)+6
- Tourist information (T2 Arrivals Hall 2A)
- HSL Mobile Ticket app

Please note that you must buy a ticket before boarding; it is not possible to buy a ticket onboard the train.

Both bus and train depart to and from the airport every 10-20 minutes. More information on local transportation Public transport Journey Planner.

The regional ticket is valid on trains, buses and trams for 80 minutes from the time of purchase. Please note that the Finnair City Bus ticket is not valid on other transport methods.

Taxis are available outside the arrival halls at a cost of about 50€, and the journey takes about 35 minutes.
